By my signature, I affirm that I agree with and will abide by the doctrinal statement in the Lausanne Covenant and governing principles in EMNR's Manual of Ethical and Doctrinal Standards (fulltext online at <https://emnr.org/about/meds/>). Data for the web site

The EMNR web site lists current member names and data at <https://emnr.org/members/>

When you join EMNR, we normally publish data about you or your ministry. More data is visible for Corporate Members (ministries, organizations) than for Individual members. You may also omit public listing if you want.

The following data will be visible to the world, including both Google web spiders (good) and email or data harvesting bots (bad), so complete this section only if you are willing to have it listed.

Individual members

For individual members, we print your name and an optional line of additional information. If you do not want your name listed in the web site, write “please do not list” or leave this section blank.
